BOER GOAT SHOW RULES

1. On-line Fair entries must be made no later than 10 pm on August 29, 2014.
 2. Fair entry fee is $5.50 per head (for first show) and must be paid at time of online entry submission.
 3. There will be a limit of 120 goats in this show.
 4. Goats must be delivered between 6 am and 9 am on Wednesday, September 10. All animals will be inspected by the Fair veterinarian before penning. Please read vet rules in the front of this book. The Washington State Fair requires that all goats must be tagged or tattooed with Scrapie identification. Animals having partial tattoos shall have accompanying identification papers that must be presented upon check-in. A map of pen assignments in the Dairy Barn will be posted. If there are any questions, check with the Superintendent.
- Exhibitors must submit vet check-in slip to the superintendent of their livestock department in order to proceed to livestock barn. NO EXCEPTIONS.
5. Upon arrival please turn in your original registration papers (NO COPIES) to the show secretary. All tattoos must be legible (clearly readable). No tattooing will be allowed after unloading. Wethers need not be tattooed.
 6. Judging will take place on Thursday, September 11 and Friday, September 12 in Town & Country Arena 1.
 7. All goats must be registered with the ABGA. Only original registration certificates from a recognized association will be accepted, except for kids less than three months, which may use a copy of a registration application. It must be stamped with the date received by the recognized association.
 8. All goats must have legible tattoos or other means of permanent identification consistent with its registration certificate or the animal will be disqualified.
 9. Birth dates, as listed on the registration certificate, will be used to determine the class divisions.

10. Group entries must be indicated at time of on-line entry for the first show and on the entry form for the second show. All animals shown in groups must be entered and shown in individual classes.
11. Only animals to be shown will be allowed.
12. The hay and straw storage shed will not be open to exhibitors. Please order hay and straw from your superintendent before 6 pm for the following morning's requirements. Hay and straw bales shall not be used for purposes other than feed and bedding.
13. All animals must remain in barns until their designated release time as set by the Fair and department superintendents. Failure to do so could result in forfeiture of premium money and, potentially, the privilege to show at future Washington State Fair livestock shows. All exhibitors should make every effort to vacate their stalls as soon as possible after being released, during the designated time, to facilitate barn cleaning prior to the arrival of other animals.
14. Goats must be removed between 6 pm and 9 pm on Friday, September 12, 2014. At posted times of release, all livestock exhibits shall be removed to permit clean-out and disinfection of the area in preparation of the arrival of the next section of animals. Early arrivals and holdovers may be accommodated by special arrangements. Any animals removed before official release time will forfeit premium payments.

15. Animals may not be walked on or off the grounds because of serious environmental concerns directly related to animal waste. Any animal (except horses) that cannot be transported in a solid bottom carrier must be removed in a truck, trailer, or similar conveyance.
16. 4-H dormitories at the Washington State Fair will be available for use by 4-H State Fair/State FFA Exposition exhibitors and their chaperones ONLY. Open class exhibitors should make arrangements for accommodations off of the grounds.
17. Eating in the Barns vs. E. coli O157:H7 – Exhibitor Cooperation Needed.

Again this year our barns will not only have signage reminding Fair guests to “Wash your hands upon leaving any livestock area”, but also “Please refrain from eating in livestock areas”.

The State Health Department has asked the Fair to request that our livestock exhibitors set an example for Fair guests and refrain from eating in most areas of the barns. In order to accommodate the Health Department's request, as well as address our exhibitor's needs, we have set aside an area, screened from public view, in the south end of the Dairy Barn where exhibitors may eat.
