See link to veterinarian information on page 1.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION FOR POULTRY EXHIBITORS

New regulations (WAC 16-59) - adopted January 3, 2008

Birds entered at the Washington State Fair will be subject to testing for Pullorum-Typhoid (P-T).

Birds which are entered from a National Poultry Improvement Plan (NPIP) participating flock, and have documentation showing the NPIP number, will not have to be tested again. Birds that have been tested at other shows up to 90 days prior to the Washington State Fair and have a certificate of proof will not have to be tested again.

If birds are tested at the Washington State Fair they will be issued a certificate good for 90 days. All birds except waterfowl, pigeons and doves are required to be tested.

Birds will be tested with a small sterile needle (used only once). One small drop of blood from the wing vein is used. Results will be available within a few minutes.

Testing will be done at check-in time.

4. All birds must be banded, and band numbers must be included it with your online entry. If you do not have bands leave space blank and you can get them at check in and add to entry at that time. Bands will be available for 50¢ per band at the Fair. Do not send band money with entry fee! After your birds are banded at the Fair, the band number information will be recorded on your entries.
5. There will be no substitutions, except for band number.
6. No exhibitor will be allowed to bring birds into the showroom unless entry fees have been paid in full. This rule is necessary so that exhibitors from a distance may have the same opportunity as the home breeder.
7. When you are entering online, care should be taken to clearly state sex, age, variety, number of specimens, name of exhibitor and LEG BAND NUMBER TO BE USED AT TIME OF ENTRY. If you do not have bands leave space blank and you can get them at check in and add to the entry at that time.

8. For the purpose of this exhibition the terms “cock” and “hen” shall mean birds hatched before January 1, 2014 “Cockerel” and “pullet” shall mean birds hatched after January 1, 2014.
9. Trios must be entered separately. ONLY CHICKENS MAY BE ENTERED AS TRIOS. There will be two kinds of trios; one for old chickens, and one for young chickens. A cock and two hens will constitute an old trio. A cockerel and two pullets will constitute a young trio. Old and young trios will not compete against each other.
10. All birds are in the charge of the superintendent of the Poultry Department during the Fair and cannot be removed without their consent. No one is allowed to handle birds other than their own.
11. No information regarding the number of entries in varieties will be given out in advance of the opening of the Fair.
12. “FOR SALE” cards will NOT be permitted on coops, in the barn, or on Fair property. No sale of birds will be allowed on Fair property. Those disregarding this rule will have their premiums forfeited.
13. The latest edition of “American Standard of Perfection” will be the guide for the judges in awarding the prizes for all varieties listed. Other varieties will be judged by the club standards.
14. Because of the season of the year when the show is held, it will be judged by comparison. The decision of the judges shall be final.
15. Exhibitors will not be allowed to display any premiums on their coops. This rule is necessary so that the public will not be misled by awards from other shows.
16. DO NOT SEND IN OR PLACE NAME CARDS ON DISPLAY COOPS. NOTHING IS TO BE PLACED ON THE DISPLAY COOPS.
17. The judge will not award a first prize on any specimen unless it is worthy.
18. The Washington State Fair reserves the right to place two females in one coop in case entries are in excess of accommodations.
19. No special privileges, such as giving one bird or one pen larger coop space than other birds or pens of the same variety, will be granted. The Washington State Fair reserves the right of prominently cooping or featuring any bird of special importance to the show.
20. All young birds exhibited must be 16 weeks of age or older, or will be banned from competition.
21. Birds shown as single specimens will not be eligible to form a part of a trio/pen.
22. Exhibitors are not permitted to talk to judges while they are judging.
23. NOTE: Electrical appliances which draw more than 200 watts, used for personal convenience of exhibitors (kettles, coffee pots, space heaters, air conditioners, hot plates, etc.) are not allowed without permission. A costly power failure can result from overloading circuits.
24. Eating in the Barns vs. E. coli O157:H7 – Exhibitor Cooperation Needed.
 Our barns will not only have signage reminding Fair guests to “Wash your hands upon leaving any livestock area,” but also “Please refrain from eating in livestock areas.”

 The State Health Department has asked the Fair to request that our livestock exhibitors set an example for Fair guests and refrain from eating in most areas of the barns. In order to accommodate the Health Department’s request as well as address our exhibitor’s needs, we have set aside an area, screened from public view, in the south end of the dairy barn where exhibitors may eat.

White Serama should be entered as "White;" these birds should have yellow shanks and red ear lobes as required by the standard. Enter all other colors as AOV (any other variety).

State if the bird is silkied or frizzled and if it is being exhibited by a youth or in the open category.

Accustom your bird to posing on a table in front of a judge. Remember that character as well as type are being judge. The handler will carry the bird to the table in front in front of the judge, pose it, and step back while the judge examines the bird.

Birds may be weighed to see if they are within standard weight if they are called to compete at higher levels.

All birds entered in the Table Top Show, must also be entered in Open Class.

This will be a fun event and a unique opportunity to show off your Serama. We hope no one will be afraid to try this due to inexperience. Most of us will be doing this for the first time.

PREMIUMS – Will be awarded as per Prize Schedule.
