CAMP FIRE USA INFORMATION

Loretta Cutter, Superintendent
(253) 845-5198, Puyallup, WA

Jenny Henry, Assistant Superintendent
(253) 845-3707, Puyallup, WA

Camp Fire - Washington State Fair Office
(253) 841-5207 (Aug. 27 to Sept. 23 only)

The Camp Fire Department's exhibit is located in the Pavilion, first floor
(#18 on Washington State Fair map).

- No entry fee will be charged, and no passes will be given to exhibitors.
- Each entry will receive a ribbon. There is no money or other premium awarded. Entries are judged first, second, third.
- A sweepstakes rosette is given to the entrant with the most blue ribbons in a variety of categories, in at least five different divisions.
- Runner-up ribbons will be awarded based on the highest number of blue ribbons won.
- A Best in Category ribbon will be awarded in each Division.

RULES FOR ENTERING

1. Entries in this department are open to all registered Camp Fire members through 12th grade. Preschoolers through 12th graders may enter 20 items. Articles entered must never have been entered before at this Fair in the Camp Fire Division.
2. Each article must have a tag with the individual's name, age, current grade, council, service area, leader's name, name of article and entry number from this class list. This tag will be removed before judging. All entries must be listed on the entry form. Entry tags and entry form (see pages 7 and 8 in this book) may be reproduced. One child per entry form, please.
3. Entries must be neat, clean and represent the entrant's OWN best efforts. For best judging results, items should be made within the last year.
4. Each entry must be able to be displayed properly. If the entry is small, fragile or loose, it must be fastened to a stable base or mounted. Do not use entry tag as a base for small items. The base or mounting should not distract from the entry, and the overall appearance will be considered in the judging. Any additional information or explanations for the judges, or information to be put on the display should be noted on a separate piece of paper, NOT ON THE ENTRY FORM OR TAG.

5. Check the rules pertaining to each division. Failure to comply with the rules will disqualify or count against the entry. Decision of the judges is final.
6. Entries from all Camp Fire members may be brought to the Camp Fire Exhibit in the Pavilion at the Washington State Fair by each individual or by each leader. Or, check with your local service area office to see if they transport entries. Be sure to designate who will be responsible for picking up the entries after the Fair.
7. RECEIVING DATES—For all entries except baked goods: Wednesday, August 27, 9 am to 4:30 pm. BAKED GOODS—Wednesday, September 3, 9 am to 3 pm. No entries will be accepted after deadline. Enter through Service Gate (on 5th Street SW, off 15th Avenue SW). All vehicles entering grounds may be subject to search. Expect delays.
8. Entries MUST be removed on Tuesday, Sept. 23 ONLY, from 11:00 am to 4:30 pm.
9. DISPLAYS—Ceremonial gowns and vests, and any item that does not qualify to be judged. All displays must be tagged and included on an entry form.

DEMONSTRATIONS

Clubs may sign up to volunteer to do demonstrations at the Camp Fire site at the Fair. You can sign up for 1/2-hour to one-hour time slots with Loretta or Jenny (see above for phone numbers) or e-mail cfair@comcast.net until (September 1) After that, you may contact the Camp Fire staff at the Washington State Fair at (253) 841-5207.

Time slots are usually between 4 pm and 6 pm on weekdays, and 10 am and 6 pm on weekends. We can schedule during the day on weekdays if your club's school has a day off during the Fair.

Your demonstration may be any activity that welcomes the public to participate or observe, and walk away with a small souvenir or a good feeling. No fee may be charged.

Tickets for your group members and adult volunteers to enter the fair may be picked up at the Camp Fire site at the Fair before Fair starts. Tickets may be picked them up at Will Call outside at the gold gate. Any tickets not used for the demos must be returned to the Camp Fire staff.
